

Division: School of Economics and Management, Department of Industrial Economics and Project Management

Academic programme: 38.04.02 Management

Mode of study: part-time

Programme length: 2 years and 6 months

Programme level: Master's degree

Language of instruction: Russian

Programme description: The programme provides training of top level specialists in the field of modern methods of business development management. The refining of managerial skills is organized in terms of seminar on project management of sustainable development, taking different kinds of internships and writing research works and Master's thesis on a burning topic. The competitive advantage of the programme lies in its emphasis on management technologies for business development through the development and implementation of investment projects. An important specific feature of the programme is its theoretical practical unity, implemented through parallel training and development of an investment development project of a particular enterprise. In the course of training, project teams are formed, the interaction in which allows to fully acquire project management skills.

Main programme-specific classes:

- Methods, Technologies and Practices of Project Management
- Financial Mechanisms of Enterprise Functioning
- Project Management of Sustainable Development
- Strategic Market Analysis
- Project Risk Management
- Economic Evaluation and Analysis of Investment Projects
- Management of Business Processes at an Enterprise
- Network Planning and Project Cost Assessment
- Technique and Technology of Business Presentation
- Modelling of Financial Flows
- Business Valuation
- Instruments of Project Financing
- Project Actualization and Multi-criteria Managerial Decision-making

Programme manager: Natalia S. Dzenzeliuk, Candidate of Sciences (Economics), Head of the Department of Industrial Economics and Project Management